

Music at St John's Bursary Scheme

Music at St John's is pleased to offer discretionary non-competitive bursaries to young musicians.

- Bursaries are available to young people who are musically active in the Dacorum area
- Bursaries are offered for a variety of purposes, e.g.
 - buying books or music directly related to the applicant's music studies.
 - the cost, in full or part, of attending a course
 - assisting with the payment of examination fees and associated costs
 - essential instrumental accessories and repairs
- Applicants should not normally be older than 21 years of age and should be studying with a recognised and qualified music teacher. Applications for those under 18 should be made by a parent or guardian (not their teacher)
- Applicants should have already achieved some progress in their music development to indicate their potential. For reference, this should be a Pass at Grade 3 or above of the ABRSM or Trinity College London examinations.

Introduction

We are very pleased to present once more our annual Music Festival as part of the ongoing Music at St John's programme of events.

As a church, St John's Boxmoor has a long established music tradition, with a choir of high standard. Since the closure of the 'Pavilion' in Hemel Hempstead, the church has become a popular venue for several local choirs (including the Dacorum Community Choir) and also for local orchestras (including The Hemel Symphony Orchestra).

This year's Music Festival offers a wide variety of 'musical fare' and we hope that you will support as many of these events as you possibly can to help make our Festival a resounding success.

This year we are collaborating with the Mayor of Dacorum as part of his 'Grand Union Jamboree'. A donation will be made to the Mayor's Fund 2024* from the net proceeds of these events.
